According to Bloomberg Terminal the ownership in Sweden is 0.03% of GME shares.

$76\,130\,000 \times 0.0003 = 22\,839$  shares

Avanza who only have Swedish users have reported that their 20 902 GME holders had 511 178 shares on 18 Jan 2022. <https://twitter.com/avanzabank/status/1483423069142196224>

If you count backwards with Avanzas shares you get about 1.7 billion outstanding shares
That is also not counting all the other brokers in Sweden with even more shares.

I can't be sure who is included in ownership though, could it be just institutional ownership, maybe someone else knows?

Another possibility is that the shares in Avanza is in a bank in US and is counted as being in that country. It could also be that those 23k shares is those shares which is registered at Computershare.
