I'm not finding any engaging conversation on the other GME subs at all anymore, even the one dedicated to DD. Not sure if it's me, the subs, or what.

At the end of the day, I like the vibes here and tend to gravitate towards it. If anybody knows of any similar open minded subs that don't need to rely on constant hype and confirmation bias, please share. If your worried about exposing it to the masses or whatever, please feel free to just DM the sub.

I just miss meaningful conversation about GME.

Thanks.
