Dear BCG,

We Apes had absolutely no interest in you before you brought about your undeserved $30M litigation when you likely tried to kill GameStop rather than actually provide them with "real" and "useful" strategic help to turn around the company. Just like the great turn-around jobs you did for Toys R Us and Blockbuster video... right? RIGHT?!! Furthermore, you likely provided many other struggling companies (Apes will gladly & energetically dig into this) with this type of "assistance" when these companies were also in "real" need of strategic professional advice. Instead, you fucking 2-face lying greedy insider bastards provided these trusting companies with a path to bankruptcy, nothing more.

That said, we now know your insider role was likely to bring about GameStop's demise at the behest of your puppet-master, Citadel. That's truly unfortunate, that is for YOU!!!

All I can say is...

WELCOME TO THE PARTY MOTHER FUCKERS!!

Apes are really focused on GameStop as a winning company, its excellent leadership and Due Diligence as it relates to GME's ultimate MOH-ASS but from this day forward, Apes will find a little more time in their busy schedule just for you, you moneygrubbing douchebags, to hunt down whatever dirt we can on your criminal behavior. And when we do, we will bring this info to the forefront of this sub and other Ape subs, and subsequently to the attention of the DoJ... who are most likely reading our posts. Btw, if you don't know or didn't bother to research and understand the supporters of GameStop then this has to be the biggest fucking mistake of your corporate existence. Apes, of whom many are gamers and geeks, typically stop at nothing to find the truth or uncover a rock for the next clue towards to the ultimate goal of winning. And guess what? Not only do we love to win, we are obsessed with winning. That's why we have "Diamond Hands". You stupid fucks literally could have not have chosen a better company and its ardent group of supporters to piss off.

I and many others, even outside of this sub, will now make it an added goal of ours to find whatever corporate shady deals, links and possible criminal activity BCG may have been involved in. And just so it's clear to you how many Apes may actively pursue this research, just think about how many of us are here reading this sub and others like it... hundreds of thousands baby!! Hundreds. Of. Thousands! And it will be our pleasure to make sure your company's shady BS deals are brought to light such that others can shine an even brighter light to uncover the truth... towards ultimate prison time. I hear that orange jumpsuits are all the rage these days, especially for high-priced colluding a-holes like yourselves. No worries though, you won't be alone as Kenny will be looking for friends in his cell when Citadel blows up.

For those you working at BCG, I suggest you start looking for another employer as I fear your company will soon find itself at the forefront of very unflattering news articles and known as a corporate pariah just like Citadel currently finds itself. And don't feel you are too smart for us, thinking we won't find what BCG has done to screw over many a good company in the past... for Apes do not forget, do not forgive and do not relent. Think about it like this... Pepperidge Farm Never Forgets. Translation for you fucks... the internet NEVER forgets and Apes will very likely be able to find a lot of fucked up shit about BCG's insider activities, how and where it may have transpired, whom was involved, etc., and then easily connect the dots for the DoJ. For those of you who jumped ship from BCG to Citadel, get ready to be raked over the coals, you dim-witted treasonous fucks.

Lastly and once again, welcome to the party Mother Fuckers!! Now just sit back and enjoy the ride to your corporate demise. Apes are more than happy to assist in this endeavor now that we are aware of your over-priced worthless PowerPoints presented by BCG 2-faced lyin' insiders.
