I'm a smooth brained ape and still confident in following instructions based on some of the how-tos and guides on getting my IRAs from Fidelity to CS, but I'd honestly love to actually work with a financial advisor to do it so that I clearly understand all my tax implications.

I've never moved IRAs beyond rollovers so I've been really apprehensive to make this move and I desperately want to now given how little confidence I have in Fud and how much I want to add my GME shares to the DRS pot.

Please hit me up if you can help so I can DRS more shares!
