Hi all, as smooth as a marble but found these two papers that discuss short selling, recalls, etc. the first is openly available to download and I was intrigued about the Go Pro example. I am too smooth to fully understand but I am hoping maybe some wrinkles would find benefit in seeing these. Appear to be peer reviewed research papers...

I know our beloved GME doesn't act like 'regular' stock but thought it was worth sharing, could be a nothing burger, thanks.
