Hi All,

sometimes I don't know if it's day or night, so I leave my Pyjamas on...don't take me serious as an financial advisor

I may be also biased because I have a medium XXX Position and my average is above the current price (I started buying at 300$, on the way down...thought it was a dip/bump...), which means I keep buying on regular base

Yesterday, an ape has formatted the Buddy Barker tweets about GME into one "DD" and it is pretty encouraging...if you haven't read it-> do so, it's worth the time

https://www.reddit.com/r/Superstonk/comments/rvvv8f/time_for_a_controversial_investment_thread_i/?utm_source=share&utm_medium=ios_app&utm_name=iossmf

I am chin deep in and a pretty experienced investor and Ape, reading 1-2hours every day not only on GME...but yes, I did study most DD's and do not believe that GME is the one who will kill WallStreet as a whole...it will cause some bloodspill, but that will just be some hedgefund investors money and maybe some money from the banks, that they got/get for free from a Fed bail out, one way or the other

Anyway, I spoke with an investor friend who is not into GME, and shared some ideas and for GME, I was bit of to ashamed for my position to tell him yet about before

I have to say (please no judging) that I am a 40yo entrepreneur in international raw materials /steel trading with a reputable CV and income, and my company makes a turnover of more than 25Mio USD per year. I can provide prove (linkedin) to a MOD if needed.

I remember when I was below 30years old when the seniors said "yes, nice idea, but you need to prove that you can do it before we respect you"- I have proven that, I am not a rebellic Generation Y ape or millenial who wants to change the world for better because it is clearly set up against him (and I believe that it actually is set up to fuck the younger generations, my fellow apes...but I also believe that the young generation will fuck the old one in a way they don't see coming yet ;))

This being said, usually my evalution counts pretty much in the circles I am in...

Anyway, so my friend and I who are handling like 250k each in investments had a talk, and I mentioned him about GME (I also have other shares that performed triple digit like Biontech, which he didn't jum on when it was 60$)

And he still was like "yeah, maybe it's a coinflip or so..."- The negative narrative spun by MSM around

GME in classic investors is so strong, that any other information drops off them like Teflon...

Again, don't get me wrong, X and XX apes, I love you as you are the hidden majority- but imagine some guys like me talk and I say "why don't throw like 10k or 20k into that? the risk/profit ratio is 1:5 or even more just on fundamentals within the next 5 years...and I do not see a big risk as the company has 1,4bn in cash on 5bn turnover which is increasing, the cash burn rate within a transformation is less than 5% and they are onboarding pretty skilled staff "

I did not use the word "shorts" or "squeeze" one time, because this will trigger his Teflon, but I also know that at least 50% are held by institution and insiders, 20% are locked in DRS and RC has the right to increase his stake from 11,8% (12,9% before the dilution) to 19,9%.

On a freakin Micro-Cap stock with just 75Mio shares!!!

What is the line I want to give you here?

Today, they call you a moron, retard or whatever and think you are just a fun trader...they smile/laugh at you when you don't watch, already now

When GME moons, they will remember EVERY word you told them, and they will know you are rich now. they will hate you because you are a reflection of their dumbness, not trusting you

Just believe me when I say: change your narrative to the outside...prepare yourself to say "I sold @ 300$" ...or, before you call me a shill, just say nothing...

I made it from an office clerk to a company owner in 15years, from 40kpy to more than 250kpy...believe me, there won't be many persons left since success is a lonely route, and people on the way will hate you, regardless if you showed them loyalty or whatsoever

I deeply recommend you Platon's allegory of the cave- more than 1500years old, but still valid DD
