E*Trade and DRS

I have tried DRS'ing my GME through E*Trade's form, but for some reason it doesn't let me. I have over $500 in my account so that reason shouldn't be valid.

I called them on Thursday to do the transfer over the phone, and the agent/trader said that I have to initiate the paperwork through ComputerShare first requesting the DRS, then they complete the transfer. I don't think this is accurate and can't find anything on Computershare about this.

Should E*trade be able to DRS my shares...or do I need an account pre-setup and complete this through Computershare?
