To be honest, I invested in this for the short-cover-thing-that-will-make-the-price-explode-which-i-cannot-name. I knew GameStop was a shit company and I was (and still am) here for short term gains like a potential price jump. Back then when the price was falling, everyone used 'It's a great long term play' as copium but now it's different.

Now with the Loopring, Immutable, Apple, possible Microsoft partnership.. GameStop is my #1 favorite stock.

Crypto, NFTs, Decentralization & Metaverse will be the next big things and what company now incorporates all of said things? It's GameStop

I've wanted to invest in this technology (NFTs, Blockchain, DeFi, Metaverse) ever since hearing about it but that would mean buying so many different cryptos (BTC, ETH, LRC) , stocks like FB, AMZN and so on.

I'm happy and more calm that GameStop is now a really deep fucking value play despite of a short-cover-thing-that-will-make-the-price-explode-which-i-cannot-name. And I will DEFINITELY continue investing even if the 100+% short interest theory might be proven wrong. It's on the way to become a great company and I like the stock!
