Good afternoon fellow apes. So I am 95% DRS but still have some GME holding in RH. I'm not a big fan of RH it's just what I used once upon a time and now have even more there from recent events with GME. I hate that they now charge you $100 to transfer out/DRS your shares. I was wondering if there is a way to gift them to my brother who has an account with RH as well then have him DRS all of his shares plus mines? I thought if that was an option maybe I could avoid us both paying $100 each to DRS our GME shares.
