Hello! I have already DRS'd in December for the first time from Revolut (DriveWealth), it was free and they handled it very quickly.

Now I am planning to DRS the rest of my shares that I have bought there to ComputerShare.

My question is to those who already DRS'd twice from Revolut, is the procedure the same, and if so, was it free? Were there any issues?

20+ more gme shares waiting there.

Thanks!
