Okay guys I'm going to be honest, I haven't DRS'd my shares. I live in Canada and use wealth simple in a Tax free saving account. PFOF is banned here and WS have come out a while ago stating they cannot lend your shares. I'm sure there are thousands if not millions just like me here that have not DRS'd that use wealth simple and bought at least 1 GME share.

Question though, if they cannot lend your shares isn't it like a mini drs? Does this effect the SHFS? The DTCC?
