I was looking back at some of my messages from last year as a bit of nostalgia. For those of you who are feeling some FUD about if the shorts were closed during the sneeze, or that they have closed over the last year, here's some insider info that was forgotten about.

So you're telling me the SI% went up a few days after the sneeze, but then disappeared instantly?

Can't imagine what we are at now lol. GME is the way.

Cheers.
