The 540,000 put options held by Credit Suisse are no longer in Bloomberg as of this morning. u/Ravada and I both posted screenshots of these two days ago. They had expirations dates of 10/15/21, so I'm not sure why they wouldn't be there anymore. Here is u/Ravada post: https://www.reddit.com/r/Superstonk/comments/otxj0x/after_my_terminal_post_yesterday_i_checked_again/?utm_source=share&utm_medium=web2x&context=3

Here are the put options sorted by # of contract held in Bloomberg as of this morning (7/31/21):

Here is my screenshot from two days ago with Credit Suisse expanded to show that contracts held in the "multiple portfolios" were all indeed all puts:

Note that my screenshots have dates at the bottom right of the pics.

Edit 1: Note that Bloomberg does not have the Credit Suisse (BRA) put options in u/Ravada post on July 27. https://www.reddit.com/r/Superstonk/comments/otj6da/28072021_gme_bloomberg_terminal_information/?utm_source=share&utm_medium=web2x&context=3

Edit 3: Just got the following chat message. Of course, take it with a grain of salt.
