I dont know about all of this. It is past July 41st. I have swipped and swapped all the ETFs and stonks. I miss the memes of the dancing cats to the nasty beats of levan Polkka. I watched (and rented) The Big Short. I follow Michael Bur$y on twatter, he has to right someday again correct?! Gay bears and bulls snorting red crayons. Watching the klitty cat man with Raphael's bandana videos over and over again. Having the little boy from bulgaria turn off the buy button after I bought 14 shares for $350 on Jan 29th, 2021. Watching the flight plans and hoping that Mr. Mayoman lands a plane in my town and comes knocking with a 7 digit offer for one of my shares. Creating loopring wallet, gamestop wallet, on ramping, off ramping, deramping my fiat, all the while waiting for an iOS GME wallet. Being a Gamestop power member for years and reading the GamelInformer magazine monthly. Buying a shortsleeve collared rocket emoji print shirt from GME so I can wear it when I drive my purple lambo with the top down to get noticed. Dusting off my corner peeling laminated Blockbuster membership card after seeing them rise from the dead again on twatter and waiting for a brick and mortar store to appear on my local mainstreet block. Opening my trading app to see the stock tick sdeways again. Seeing a nice uptrend only to know that it will soon drop again once it nears $180. Watching another "GME 100% Utilization on ortex" remind me that something should happen but it didnt again. NFT Marketplace is here!!!!!! ...nothing happened.... huh, that was a trigger for the moonrocket right? maybe next time... Waiting for the stock split dividend not a dividend split, wait, it was a splidividend... No one knows, not even the shithole DTCC or DTC or SEC or DeezeNuTs dept of fuck you. I am here. I fall asleep on r/superstonk, I wake up on hopium. I am here for the long term process. I have never been early for anything, this is the time. I have DRS'ed xxxx shares, I have averaged down. I believe in the vision. Just had to let it all out and decompress, dont sweat it, I am zen.

peace out my dudes, back to twork to make more pennies to make more DRS.
