 @Danglez Because they think these companies are going to change the world for the better

 StickyNicky  Today at 02:00

I am

AMC no they just do movies

GME

They could be a bit disruptive in the market which would be cool

 Danglez Today at 02:08

So I was like that until I realized Ryan Cohen is genuinely a moron

Now day trading on the delusion of a moass

I'm baffled that no one thinks like this. Gme and amc are the definition of cult stocks

 StickyNicky  Today at 02:13

Delusion? Ok buddy

 Danglez Today at 02:19

Why do you think moass will happen

What's your points AGAINST this being fueled by delusional dreams of financial freedom

I'm just curious to see the opinion of someone who currently still believes it'll happen

You don't really think one share will be worth millions do you?

 Sagebeard  Today at 02:39

Millions? That's the idiots on reddit

A real upside from current levels? Very well possible

 Danglez Today at 02:41

Agreed

The stock trades between 180-240

Amc trades between 32-45

Covered calls have huge premiums because of "Apes"

I'm just trying to have a lively debate with someone smart who is confident in their position
