So, I went 100% DRS.

I was planning to sell some instead of saving all of them for the infinity pool.

My question is do you guys DRS those you don't sell or you DRS 100% and then sell some of them?

The recent brokerage fuckery and the SEC claiming they will stop trading if something happens kinda bother me therefore I went 100% DRS. So I was wondering keeping some in the brokerage or not?

Sorry for asking stupid questions :/

gme(for the requirement)
