> Romney is trying so hard to claim that he left Bain in 1999, and not 2001. BTW, please read the linked MNAT deposition from Morris, Nichols, Arsht and Tunnell in Haas article. It's a PDF file, but it's one of the worst lawyerly attempts at obfuscation you'll ever find. Now here's where Connolly comes in. Romney officially resigned from Bain Capital in August of 2001. And, on August 2, 2001, Colm Connolly, one of the partners in the law firm representing Mitt Romney, was appointed by George W. Bush to become the Delaware United States Attorney. In other words, the person who would be responsible for prosecuting precisely the sort of fraud that Bain Capital committed while being represented by Connolly's law firm.

> Goldman Sachs was primary fiduciary who took eToys public for $85 per share; but only allowed eToys to receive $18.50 per share.

> The SEC violation is established by the facts that Goldman Sachs had a (kick back) scheme of handpicking friends who would spin back a large portion of their guaranteed windfall profits.

> At that time, Colm Connolly was the Delaware Assistant United States Attorney who declined to prosecute eToys case.

> Goldman Sachs took eToys public in 1999. At that time MNAT represented Goldman Sachs in Delaware (where eToys is formed as a company). Also in 1999, MNAT merged Mitt Romney and Bain Capital's entity - "The Learning Company" - with Mattel Toys. The stock of eToys soared above $78, but the new public entity only received around $18.

> This classic pump-n-dump stock scheme gave Goldman Sachs and Bain Capital the perfect opportunity. All they needed was for the MNAT law firm (that also represented the Mormon Church's claim on the Howard Hughes estate) - to LIE to the Chief Federal Justice in 2001 - and become eToys Debtor attorneys.

> Then, Mitt Romney's other secret attorney (Paul Traub) lied to become the eToys Creditors attorney. Upon the success of those schemes, MNAT and Mr. Traub then put in Barry Gold as President/ CEO of eToys. Barry Gold worked for Mitt Romney and Michael Glazer at Stage Stores bankruptcy in 2000. Traub had been working with Romney/ Bain since the NeoStar case 2 decades ago. He was also at Jumbo Sports and Stage Stores with Barry Gold.

> Colm Connolly was a partner at MNAT from early 1999 to August 2, 2001 (the very same time Romney wants to be "retroactive" from). Former Pres GW Bush nominated Colm Connolly to be the United States Attorney in Wilmington Delaware. For his entire 7 years of tenure, Mr. Connolly buried all investigations and/ or prosecutions of Goldman Sachs and Bain Capital. This takes care of the fraud and corruption.

> How it gets built up into Racketeering is also simple. MNAT, Paul Traub and Barry Gold have already confessed that they lied to a Chief federal judge 34 times over several years. [But, due to the federal corruption with Colm Connolly, no prosecutions transpired. Yet, due to this pesky consultant and some eToys shareholders pushing buttons, they also had to perpetrate frauds on the California courts, the Delaware District Court, the United States 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals and the New York Supreme Court (where case 601805/2002 is placed entirely Under SEAL). Being that it is the same people, over several years, in many states, many courts and hundreds of millions (if not billions of dollars) = that equals RICO.] (<https://www.dailykos.com/story/2012/11/2/1154336/-NEWS-BREAK-PoliticusUSA-com-story-Mitt-Romney-Benefited-Fraud-Corruption-Racketeering-eToys>)

> As you can see by the various connections, much stuff was going on. It gets convoluted when you want to steal a brand new IPO for zero, zilch Nada monies. But it helps, when Morris Nichols Arsht & Tunnell (www.MNAT.com) is the law firm for both Goldman Sachs and Bain interests.

> MNAT has CONFESSED that their firm lied 15 times to a federal judge and becomes the eToys attorney. However, MNAT has only confessed their connections to Goldman Sachs and vigorously strikes & expunges or Destroys Books & Records (see Court Pleading ([here)) - which would reveal they also work for Bain - when they sold eToys to Bain/ Kay Bee Toys.](<https://www.dailykos.com/story/2012/6/5/1097262/-The-2001-EVENTs-Romney-Bain-Wish-To-Keep-Secret-The-Unethical-DE-U-S-Attorney-Colm-Connolly>)

> For 11 1/2 years, we have waited, searched, begged and pleaded with people to give us the proof. That final piece of smoking gun evidence, that nails all the coffins shut air tight. Several days ago, I finally found the last Smoking Gun Pictured right, is Colm Connolly. He was a partner at MNAT in 2001. The very year the crimes began and were assisted by his law firm MNAT, helping Bain & Goldman Sachs steal a Billion dollar company for FREE.

> This type of behavior has happened all too often with Bain Capital and Goldman Sachs ripping off investors and employees alike in various schemes from Mattel's failed merger deal to the illegal seizure of eToys by court-approved charlatan Paul Roy Traub robbing whistleblower Laser Haas of his position as CEO and liquidator, whom played both sides pretending not to know the auditor (liquidator) Barry Gold while working in "good faith" of investors.

> In reality, Barry Gold and Paul Roy Traub were friends and colleagues. In fact, Barry Gold hired Paul Traub to work as the law firm for the bankruptcy case of Stage Stores, then he later went on to help Traub fleece eToys and KB Toys. Which in the case of KB Toys, Michael Glazer was simultaneously the CEO of Kb and Director of Stage Stores at the same time in 2000 through 2005 when all the crimes of eToys and KB took place. An obvious conflict of interest since Bain Capital was involved in the liquidation of KB Toys.

> Bain Capital/KB via Michael Glazer moved over to buy eToys for $5.4 million, pretending to be opponents of Barry Gold, Paul Traub, and MNAT.

> The crooks were able to circle around the entire case of eToys and KB by lying under oath, dozens and dozens of times, concealing the fact that Barry Gold and Paul Traub worked for Glazer at Stage Stores, and that MNAT handled the Delaware merger of The Learning Company, with Mattel, also owned by Romney and Bain.

> Mattel was merged in Delaware where Colm Connolly was the federal prosecutor.

> Then Colm Connolly switches sides to become a partner of MNAT and, coincidentally, the Delaware Department of Justice doesn't pursue any investigation into Mattel's public company billion-dollar losses!

> Also, as a result of the merger of Learning Company with Mattel, Mitt's contingency reportedly got 12 million shares of Mattel stock.

> In 1997, Goldman Sachs aided Thomas Lee Partners, Mitt Romney and Bain Capital to get involved with "The Learning Company" through a private equity firm.

> Two years later in May 1999, the MNAT law firm (working for Goldman Sachs and Bain Capital in various deals) assisted "The Learning Co" to merge with Mattel toys.

> This resulted in instant, catastrophic losses, in the billions, transpired in what is known to be one of the worst corporate mergers of all time.

Here's KB Toy in Delaware

[There's a two week old post here] (https://www.reddit.com/r/Superstonk/comments/tn99hb/please_read_this_bcg_lawsuit_could_be_a_huge_trap/) with a video from The ~~CEO~~ executive of eToys

Should be a good tl:dr; he named everyone, calls out their fraud, says they kidnapped his kid, it's insane....

Edit: Here's one of the lawsuits against Romney/ Goldman about eToys filed by Haas

> Goldman Sachs and Bain Capital are Co-Defendants

> Also named in the lawsuit as "Defendants" are Goldman Sachs (who took eToys public and is accused of fraud), Bain Capital (that bought Kay Bee Toys in 2000) and Michael Glazer (CEO of Stage Stores and Kay Bee who worked with Bain/ Kay Bee to buy eToys) and Barry Gold (who worked as director's assistant at Stage Stores and then became a post-bankruptcy petition President/CEO of eToys in May 2001. Plus Paul Traub is named (who confessed in 2005 that he was secretly Barry Gold's partner). Mr. Traub was also partners with fraudster Marc Dreier and named by the Federal Receiver over Tom Petters Ponzi as "controller" thereof.
