My parents/family think I'm crazy so I could never convince them to buy any GME. When this thing blasts off I'm going off the grid, so getting a "loan" from me will be difficult lol

SO, I just gifted some of my DRSD shares to my parents and mother-in-law. Super easy process! Just need an address. NOW, they're all excited about GME and are talking about adding some shares to their new CS account once it's all settled.
