Not enough of those charming points for that other sub, so I post here for some internet-point whoring and motivation to get others to DRS:-)

Initially i started the GME DRS process from Trade Republic (german ape unfriendly broker) around 48th of April and today i finally got my verification code via UPS (even tho i asked for email and paid those 30 USD)

Overall the process was smooth but CS really gave me a hard time with their verification process, and i feel their phone support is not really that motivated to help us apes out.

So how do i feed the bot now ?
