The Apes across the pond in Europe, Africa, Asia, ect, all just got fucked by their brokers. RH, and Fidelity tried to do the same and caused the first DRS wave. Foreign apes have kept from using DRS because of cost, but now seeing that their entire investment is in trouble, DRS is the only option if you wanna keep playing the GME game. It's either DRS or have your broker delete your position.

Stay the course, Apes. Buy, hodl, DRS.
