They will be the first to paper hand for sure, but it will still add fuel to the flame for the short term. These are the same people that have called us conspiracy theorists for the last year and will likely profit now thanks to us diamond handing through the never ending short attacks. I'm ok with that is it helps put more pressure on the gme shorts adding to the nuclear bomb RC just launched. Too excited to even sleep. Our time is near brother and sister apes.
