So today and tomorrow Are dates I've seen hyped up recently ( May the 4th - Ryan Cohen making some star wars references -with the dumb stormtroopers tweet, Byron from looping with the bobafett avatar) I'm sure there is more clues/examples and 5th may (Astronaut day - leaked code found somewhere suggesting a possible nft launch date. Can't remember the specifics and RC making a few references with the pinata tweet months ago and more recently the hola tweet)

So my question is, when was the last time, if ever....has a date that was hyped and something actually went and happened?
