To the Moon(Gorillas) 💎 🙌 coming Monday!

Brian,

Coming this Monday! Our limited edition MoonGorilla NFTs will be available for purchase.

Sent from the moon to help their endangered cousins on Earth, these MoonGorillas have chosen objects and outfits that they hope will help them fit in, but they have gotten lost along the way! Can they count on you to adopt them and help them complete their mission to save the Earth's last gorillas?

These 10,000 MoonGorillas are net-carbon-positive and 8,888 of them will be released on Monday, May 2 at 12:01 EST, to this select group of Fossey Fund supporters. The sale will go through May 6 at 11:59pm EST or when all MoonGorillas have found a home.

One hundred percent of the funds raised will go directly towards the Fossey Fund's ongoing gorilla conservation work. The Fossey Fund is currently protecting more than 2,400 sq km of critical gorilla habitat in the DR Congo and Rwanda – three times the size of New York City and one of our planet's best and natural defenses against climate change – and our hope is that the MoonGorilla community will help us raise $1 million to continue this critical work.

With 20 super rare NFTs and an additional 600 with special features, such as rockets, stocks, and diamonds, you won't want to wait to get yours! Will you be first in line to get your MoonGorilla before they sell out?

To learn more about MoonGorillas and what makes them so special (check out the spark AR feature in the video on our website) as well as how to setup your web3 digital wallet for purchase, visit our MoonGorillas website.

To the moon!
