Hey Apes, how are you doing? I just wanted to let you know that today is my birthday and I feel something big for Gamestop in the air. Would it be the launch of the imminent NFT Marketplace? Would it happen the 14th of July 'cause I'll start to work for my first time ever? Let's see..

Before applying for this job I said to myself "Imagine if I get this job and this whole GME saga comes to an end". Guess what, I got the job and the 14th of July a new cycle of my life begins. I seriously can't wait to invest part of my salary into GME. Unfortunately, I have never had the chance to average down or to average up during this year since I'm just an Italian University student who still has to manage to pass his last exams of the year. I've been hodling since last September.

Today I feel something. My ass itches. Planets are aligning but when it will happen, I won't quit this job 'cause I think I must learn what you guys have been through at work. I wanna be a better person. Knowledge is power but knowledge comes from experience. GME has changed me a lot, Ryan Cohen's vision has changed me a lot and I'm so happy that I met lots of new people during this outstanding journey that, forgive me but for these reasons, I hope it will never end. You all are part of my journey. Thank you all.

PS: Gotta go study right now for my Law exam. It will be hard studying and not checking the price of GME since at 3.30 PM our favourite stock starts trading!
