Im active on etoro informing people about how a year ago etoro limited investors buying crypto and had them have a "sell all buy 1 policy" and that they could do it again with GME if needed.

Im then informing them to research DRS and how its good overall.

Anyway, I realized that whenever im posting, a day later the entire discussion is deleted and no longer available. Thought id let etoro users still on the fence know this.

I btw still ON etoro, but very slowly moving out (buy on ibkr, drs, sell on etoro, withdraw money, repeat)
