The documentary GameStop: Rise of the Players came out today.

This is going to start a lot of buzz, even our Chairman tweeted about it. Have we seen him be that direct about what's been going on with the stock?

Now, what I really want to say is...if this thing pops next week and people who used to make fun of you for holding, call you names, laugh at you, now comes asking why didn't you tell them the whole story...why didn't you say anything...etc

Remember, we all had an ENTIRE YEAR to read the DD and put our money where our mouth is. There is no excuse for anyone who doesn't strike it rich during the big green candle. I will have no sympathy.

In GME we hold

Also, they call GME holders a cult? I thought we were all a bunch of individual retards holding a stock we like?
