I've received an email from Trading212 with control number for proxy voting for GameStop shareholders meeting and it redirected me to the proxy voting website.

What is weird is that as per record date it says that I've held 6.94 shares, where in total I have xxx shares.

Obviously it's my fault that I haven't DRS yet, my shares on Trading212 aren't really mine and are being lent out so I guess it's finally time to DRS all of them.
