Mother of all Godfathers. To keep this community alive after MOASS, I think we should pay homage to the person who showed us the way. In order to keep that GME family connection for life. I know we all have that person who introduced us to this movement. Also, I know we all passed down the countless hours of DD to someone else. If we all keep that connection when we are bathing in our tendies, our gratitude will pass on from each person that we connected to this journey. I for one am grateful for the person who started me in this journey. Godfather Indrebo, you have my gratefulness.
