Just spent 4 hours on the phone with E-tards (mostly waiting) to have them inform me where E-tards are purchasing my shares from. They also claimed that they are getting **50+** GME DRS requests a day (probably a lot more). New transfer time to computershare are quoted at 3 weeks (down from 6), while my initial transfer to computer share took 5 business days. They claimed they shut off the buy button for GAMESTOP because they were worried about fraud, and E-tards "lack of understanding MEME Stocks".

The trades are being purchased from the following (recent first, recorded from the last two weeks):

1. Jane street (executed today, waiting on T+2 settlement)
2. Citadel (executed today, waiting on T+2 settlement)
3. Jane street (executed today, waiting on T+2 settlement)
4. G1X
5. 2 Sigma Soho
6. Knight
7. Knight
8. Jane street
9. ETRF
10. Jane street
11. ETRF
12. G1X
13. Citadel
14. Citadel
15. ETRF
16. ETRF
17. 2 Sigma Soho
18. UBC

**Jane street** is the market maker selling the majority through the dark pool.

I asked why etards switched from commission trading to *PFOF*, and the answer was "to compete with companies like ROBBING DA HOOD. I guess they liked the CRIME based business plan.
