Okay you Canadian Apes, how does a dumbass like me get my shares into Computershare? I've been against DRS for so long, but after seeing some Canadian voices piping up, I'm ready to move some shares over. You fuckers won me over.

Currently all my shares are in a TFSA. Do I need to create a regular non-TFSA account first?

Does anyone know the tax implications for these shares being outside of a TFSA? Is it that we get taxed on half of the capital gains? If so, I can live with this.

Do I call CS first? Or my broker?

Any help would be greatly appreciated!!
