I'm not dreaming am I? They used to buy all those fucking 1 cent puts in their hundreds of thousands right, as part of their crime?

But now, the only minimum strike on GME is $20. And this is the same for every option chain except one week in june and one in may where the strike is 10$

In fact, to even get close to the lowest strike, you need to go to Jan 2023, for $1 puts.

Why all of a sudden, have the 0.01's stop existing?
