GME FTW! So people are posting that the shorts were able to go long on Bath and thats why RC did what he did blah blah. How did they manage to do that? Why wouldnt they just buy more GME and DRS it like the rest of us and get paid and screwed at the same time. At least when it goes nuclear they might survive. Is there something I am missing on the math? If I am missing something how did they get long on Bathstock. Not fud. I am way deep on GME. Gained a little off Bath, but lost 40% in the last day or so.
