We know shitadel uses CNBCitadel to scare GME investors.

Telling us to sell on 1/28/2021 because we were "attacking" Melvin Capital and saying they covered their shorts.

Cramer taking responsibility for the NFT marketplace on Twitter saying RC should listen to him more.

I wonder why Gasperino and Cramer have not yet told us something like "you are going to jail unless you sell your game shares".

Because one of the female reporters said we should sell our meme stonks before the market bottoms.

But why have they not said that we are all going to prison over our stonks?

If they want to scare paper hands and we really are going to crash the economy why don't they say we are going to prison for "financial t3rrorism"?

Is it because they risk lawsuits after MOA$$ for telling us that we will go to prison?

RICO could charge them with conspiracy but they will probably just say they are entertainers.

Could KG even persuade POTUS with speaking fees to arrest us and sell our positions?

If I was KG and wanted my enemies to sell, I would have the media report that apes were going to jail.
