I've read through a lot of ratios posts and comments and have seen a random connection to P S T H. There is also that viking on Twitter that talks about it quite a bit as well. I see susquehanna and jane street capital (both who are heavy shorting gme) are invested in it. There was a cryptic post saying they hope billy does well (bill ackman the ceo) I feel that I'm close just missing something, cant figure out if Billy is on our side or not. What am I missing???
