I have held GME since end of February. I have DRS'd 100% accept what I plan to sell. We know SHF have their interns scour Reddit. I have said this before. If you can hold for years great for you, keep it to yourself. All this bs I see here on I can hold for years 2,3,5 or 10. These slimy fuks get that reported to you them and it makes them all warm and fuzzy on their beans.

What should be coming out of peoples mouth is they turned the buy button off. Have drug us back and forth over kennifers short mans ld. This shit has gone on way to long and retail is through waiting. DRSing will force their hand but until then we (retail) want it now. The power retail has is in the numbers of holders. Let our voices be heard now daily on twatter ttk Link edln any other form of social media.

My guess would b there are thousands of apes if not millions that need MOASS now. I am one of them. I am on the verge of losing everything I've worked for, for 24 years. The reason I am where I am is bc I'm a small business that didn't have $ to bribe local government and wouldn't have if I did have the $. I made my investment from studying the God tier DD. Plus I root for the little guy or gal no matter. I wanted to be apart of breaking the corruption. Ima damn proud ape.

In closing remember no matter how powerful corrupt or how many politicians SHF have in their pockets. You cannot out run the internet. The more heat kept in public eye something or someone will break. With all the talk of I'll hold till I die. BS. I'd like to enjoy my family with my tendies. I'll hold for years. BS. That is what SHF want to hear. So again if you can hold till kennifer takes it in the ass from bubba in his assless orange jumpsuit good for you but what should come out of your mouth in a post is I'm done waiting. This needs to end now. It's called now faith. Think of fellow apes hurting for $ before you regurgitate the I will hold forever BS.

Remember don't give the enemy bullets for their gun
