You guys saw Ryan Cohens post about the Gamestop movie? This sub loves and links another movie all THE TIME. Does it ever feel like in our simulation it's crazy movies like the Big Short can be made and people don't wake up, grab pitch forks and torches? Where Hollywood can make a movie about how corrupt a system is and nothing was fixed and we continue on about our working days? Does any of this seem familiar too you? Why did Edward Snowden tell us too stay mad? Why is Dr. McShorty betting on Tesla? Remember 2008 after the government intervined corrupt banks and hedge funds, stopped predatory lending on housing, school loans, and hospital bills?
