I might be onto something. Go look at the That blockbuster wayback machine screenshot. So sorry on mobile can't format. And look at the icons on the left. If you include that wierd icon on the bottom , there's 8 files in the first group, 5 files in the second, 11 in the last. 08/05/11. Friday before the 2011 market crash.

Well guess what . This year , 08/05 is also on a Friday. Idk. There's a lot more info on that screen grab then this. And theres probably something else that happened on the date besides being the Friday before the crash.

But what makes me think this is a clue not a publicity thing is that GameStop's shirts, "be kind rewind", well we rewind on the wayback machine to see this next clue, and also like going back to 2011 is rewinding.. I'm sorry if this Reads so shitty or doesn't make any sense . I'm sick with Covid and intoxicated with MJ

TDLR the date of the Friday before 2011 marketcrash can be found hidden inside the blockbuster way back machine image. Something something be kind rewind back to 08/05/11
08/05/22 is a Friday too
