In case you haven't noticed, the market is acting kind of strange of late. As for $GME, today the shareprice might go up, down, or sideways. Regardless of how it performs, funds hunt stop losses and exploit them to cause cascading downward pressure. You can help alleviate that situation by avoiding stop losses.

As a side note, voting on CS is easy and straightforward. Let your voice be heard and vote. Incidentally, voting via CS means it's YOUR voice being heard, not via some proxy ventriloquist speaking for you. Better GameStop hears from the horse's mouth, not the horse's a...
