Contacted WS to DRS my final 12 gamestop shares before the dividend is sent out and received this email:

I hope your day is going well!

We have submitted your request to withdraw 12 shares of GME**. ** Our team will begin processing this shortly and the DRS Statement will be mailed out to the address you provided. This process may take 4-7 weeks; however, given the current volume, it may take longer.

Once the shares have left your Wealthsimple account we no longer have visibility of the shares, though you can expect the shares to be processed and visible at Computershare within 4-7 weeks from the time that they leave your Wealthsimple account!

We appreciate your patience and will be in touch with additional updates!

Being unhappy with the timeline I responded with this:

Jul 12, 2022, 10:31 a.m. EDT

4 to 7 weeks is an unacceptable time table for this transaction. T+2 for the trade to be made and settle. Your explanation is vague at best and I would like to speak with a compliance officer regarding this matter

Now I'm smooth as fuck, and as much as I have read on trading practices on reddit not all of it sticks. But I press on as I know this time table is retarded.

WS responds with:

Oh, so this is the pat on the head for the stupid GME Ape saying "piss off" essentially.

Again my response is:

So what you are telling me you took my money and WS didn't buy my shares with it. So now you are forced to go out in the market and get them for as cheap a price as you can get pocketing the difference. Your time table of 4 to 7 weeks after charging me for 300 dollars for a service that is free elsewhere is proposterous. I expect faster service for this transfer. I will give you 6 business days to complete the transfer. If it is not completed, I will be filing a complaint against your company.

Your actions make me question your business practices.

The shares appeared in my CS account today. Makes you wonder why WS is asking for 4-7 weeks doesn't it? I've learned too much here and elsewhere on reddit concerning my GME investment and 8 months ago I still wasn't convinced that the fuckery was everywhere. I'm 8 months smarter now, and I can tell when I am being fucked over with my GME shares.

Maybe my pissy replies didn't mean anything to WS and I would have received my shares in CS within 4 days anyway. I don't think so though, I think this ignorant Ape rattled his spear and WS has had many other Apes rattling their spears the last few months. I think they capitulated because they had too. Wtf do I know, I am just happy I have my shares in CS and I won't be buying anymore via a broker.
