With GME doing this....is it more advantages to buy before the 16th or wait till the SP is 1/4thrd?

Example..say it's $100 SP on the 16, yes I know I will have 4 afterwards, but value is then $25. So why not wait till after? Won't SS/HF/MM find a way to cover their asses for the most part during the in-between time? Unfortunately the market is rigged and they seem to figure a way out.

I just want confirmation bias as to why I should but more now than later.

Be kind, since being burned before, I am looking for my best game plan.

Thanks
