You lost 20 Billion in 2021 for shorting GME. As MSM reported back then, you closed your positions in 2021, right....? No reason NOT to believe you or mediaright? Then Why you keep shorting GME again, you didn't learn your lesson? Short volume is astronomical, millions of shares, each day. You yanked the price by 38% in half month. This is self destructive, you will be bankrupt in no time when the time comes. The reason I'm writing this letter is not that I am concerned about you hedges going out of business and loosing investors money. It's about blaming me, a retarded ape, for your loss. Don't go to media crying that you lost hundreds of billions or trillions because a poor ape like me manipulated the market when all I did was I bought and hold a stock I liked. This is my first and last warning.

I will retire on the moon. less
