I as many of us, was disappointed by not hearing much about the stock dividend/split yesterday. It was hyped up a bit as something to look forward to.

But then I got to thinking about the upcoming NFT marketplace, and how if they did release information about a dividend/split, it could overshadow the hugeness of this upcoming marketplace. We know it will be live this month. This has been their baby for a long time. It's a potential game changer for not only gamestop, but for the entirety of retail. There has been a lot of hype about it and I would have to think that they want the hype to continue and not let some of it get lost by another announcement.

We at least know the votes went through and that they have the ability to do a dividend/stock split at some point, but let's see what kind of madness this upcoming NFT marketplace can create and then see where we need to go.

I am at peace with it all, and I am extremely excited to start using the new marketplace. Let our focus be on that because it is a very exciting thing that will make our company a greater force!
