I want to sell my roth ira shares and rebuy them in my brokerage account so I can DRS them. The problem is I can take the 10% penalty but not the exorbitant capital gains tax.

If I sold now I'd be selling at a loss, so would the capital gains tax not apply? If that's the case then I'll do it if there's no other issues. I have XXX gme shares in there I wanna move to computershare.
