Body:

Looking a lot like the home of the "Boston Revolution" is home to the Spook Revolution...via Harvard nexus.

Lots of CIA projects run through Harvard in 60s: psychological torture experiments (Henry Murray) -> Ted Kaczynski, psychedelics/shroom movement (Timothy Leary - OSS) and lots more.

Bill Gates (started Harvard '73) was probably a CIA project at the advent of microprocessor development to seize control of next "revolution"

Harvard nexus includes the CFIA (Center for International Affairs) setup via Ford Foundation and first run by Robert Bowie ((chief National Intelligence Officer for CIA '77-'79) which is the same years George HW "flimsy 11/22/63 alibi" Bush was the Director of CIA)), and Henry Kissinger (CFR, etc.). *11/22/63 was Kennedy Assassination date for those newer to this CFIA sort of morphed later, and I would venture a guess they sort of false flagged themselves for cover to pivot using the Women's division of the Weather Underground to pivot into the Kennedy School of Government (KSG) - Institute of Politics (initiated by Barney Frank (chairman Financial Services Committee) The motherfucking hubris of naming KSG boils my blood. These guys are black-souled assholes

KSG was recently put in its place by Pompeo for trying to lionize Chelsea Manning as some sort of Daniel Ellsberg (Harvard, again)...

'71 was a hotbed year for Harvard. and Chuck Schumer (NY) graduated Harvard, along with Lawrence Summers (Federal Reserve/World Bank).

Gates is undoubtedly CIA, Schumer is undoubtedly CIA, Ken Griffin (Harvard '89) is undoubtedly CIA....this is what we are fighting to destroy.... by a further jump of assumption via Weather Underground/Ted Ayers...then Obama is CIA.

It's all here at Harvard folks.

Addendum: Griffin's rise to fame always sounded engineered...now we know by whom. Imagine getting any University to give a kid privileges to install a personal satellite dish on a dorm....fat chance.

From Wikipedia-

"Griffin started at Harvard College in the fall of 1986. That year, one of his first investments was to buy put options on Home Shopping Network, making a $5,000 profit. He also invested in convertible arbitrage opportunities in convertible bonds. Despite a ban on running businesses from campus, Griffin convinced school administrators to allow him to install a satellite dish on the roof of the Cabot House dormitory to receive stock quotes. He also asked Terrence J. O'Connor, the manager of convertible bonds at Merrill Lynch in Boston, to open a brokerage account for him with $100,000 that Griffin had gotten from his grandmother, his dentist, and others. His first fund launched in 1987 with $265,000, days after his 19th birthday. The fund launched in time to profit from short positions on Black Monday (1987). Griffin graduated in 1989 with a degree in economics."

And by assumption, we can bet they also engineered Black Monday if he was positioned to profit from it....

And further circumstantial support (they like bragging) that they killed JFK.

EDIT: Addendum

Harvard Center for Middle Eastern Studies (CMES) and CIA funding. Policywonks guiding US policy.

"US government had seen the main threat to US hegemony in the Middle East as coming from Arab nationalist and leftist forces; in recent years official nightmares have revolved around Islamic fundamentalism. "

Makes one wonder if Middle Eastern nationalist movements threatened petrodollar hegemony.... One could co-opt and funnel these movements into fundamentalist terrors and then eradicate via war to preserve the monopoly (and post a war profit at the same time).... Dunno, just spitballing.

Harvard Alwaleed Islamic Studies Program -> bin Talal donated heavily to prop up Obama and Hillary. Arrested in Saudi op at start of Trump presidency.

Chuck Schumer (Harvard '71) had a congressional aide name Anthony Weiner -> Huma Abadin -> Hillary Clinton.

Harvard contains the black hole of bullshit...
