Re: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552
Request No. 21-[REDACTED]-FOIA

Dear Mr. [REDACTED]:

This letter responds to your request, dated May 1, 2021 and received in this office on May 3, 2021, for "for any documents where Citadel [Securities] is the subject of or one of the subjects thereof" from January 1, 2021 to May 5, 2021. You also submitted a request for expedited processing with this request.

By letter dated May 5, 2021, our office rendered a decision on your expedited treatment request.

We are withholding records that may be responsive to your request under 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(7)(A). This exemption protects from disclosure records compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement activities. Since Exemption 7(A) protects the records from disclosure, we have not determined if other exemptions apply. Therefore, we reserve the right to assert other exemptions when Exemption 7(A) no longer applies.

It is the general policy of the Commission to conduct its investigations on a non-public basis. Thus, subject to the provisions of FOIA, the Commission does not disclose the existence or non-existence of an investigation or information gathered unless made a matter of public record in proceedings brought before the Commission or in the courts. Accordingly, the assertion of this exemption should not be construed as an indication by the Commission or its staff that any violations of law have occurred with respect to any person, entity, or security.

I am the deciding official with regard to this adverse determination. You have the right to appeal my decision to the SEC's General Counsel under 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(6), 17 CFR § 200.80(f)(1). The appeal must be received within ninety (90)
