Hey,

I wanted to ask because i have heard that many standard brokerages had problems to adress the dividend to shareholders.

How is the situation at FTX?

Do you see FTX accounting the dividnt at some point in future? In the information paper of FTX tokenized stocks i was informed that I am entitled as tokenized stock holder to future dividend payments.

Until which date i will receive the dividend on $GME GameStop tokenized securities?

Thank you!

Hi,

Can you clarify what dividend you're referring to?

It does not appear there has been a dividend since 2019

Thanks,
