Seriously, how many will it take to change the lives of apes? One, five, fifty...etc.? Is it 5-10, 20-30, 50+, 100+? Where does GME even go? I've seen the "floor" page, but don't believe that's based on anything but is there for amusement.

I'm curious what that numbers is perceived to be.

While life changing means different things to each of us, how many shares to end up with "fuck you " money?
