correct me if im wrong, im silly ape who bought gme at 400$ peak day prior to buybutton removal.

let me get this straight. i have 10 shares of GME.... stock splits 4. i should receive my 40 shares. oh but wait. i have to wait 7 business days? why....

but if i went to a bank, with a 10$ note and asked for change in tonnies. i should receive 5 tonnies promptly. (this would indicate this bank has no problem delivering me the funds i request) imagine if the bank took my 10$ note and said ya your 5 tonnies will be delivered to you within 7 business days...

has a stock split ever had this issue before? i know amazon had a stock split recently
