Like many of you, the events of the last 72 hours had my attention. There were highs & lows on that time - nothing we havent experienced before.....so for me it was water off a ducks back. But it seems it may have distracted the masses, maybe even discouraged some. I'm here to put things into perspective.

Over the holidays - do you know what I saw across the subreddits. I saw a Christmas miracle. While MSM were quite, RC and co keeping to themselves and apes with their families with no distractions - we saw DRS continue. Post after post , circle after circle. It was beautiful.

Since then, we have had divisions wrt to options, Charles video, MSM pump the stock, then dump the stock, a claim that GME and any NFT market place would fund terrorism.....all in the space of a week. Take a moment - read that again!!!!

If anything, the events of the past week should tell you - its working. They are desperate - constant lies and manipulation dominates the feeds these days. The DD is solid, your investment is a golden ticket. Your resolve should be strengthened. Forget the distractions.....its time to go back to work. Time to own your future. It's time to DRS

Whether you are an x, xx , xxx or xxxx holder - we all have an equal part to play, we all have a responsibility.

Do your part - secure your investment. For those who believe they can simply bystand and wait - letting others do the heavy work, this is not the way. If an NFT or digital dividend was announced - you would be outside the party looking in. Cover all angles - to ensure you have your ticket for the rocket

GME have lit the beacons - will you repsond?
