The last 13F for Blackrock showed they had 5 million shares. Vanguard also held 5 million shares but they were all lent out. Net 0. Simply put, Blackrock doesn't have diamond hands. We will have to buy all those shares before the rocket starts. The lower we go, the faster that happens.

GameStop has been such an exciting adventure for me. I've been here pre sneeze and haven't stopped buying or talking about it to everyone I know. I look forward to soon having a ton of rich friends to adventure through life with.

Cheers!
